rested its case. CHARGES AGAINST THE POLICE. Attorney Kealing then stepped forward and made the opening statement for the

at the conclusion of his testimony the State defense, in which he outlined what he thought the defense would be able to prove. Mr. Kealing said: Gentlemen of the Jury-The deputy prose-cutor told you what they expected to prove in this case, and they have introduced their witthe shot fired, then both are equally guilty. The court will instruct you that these defendants are to be considered innocent until they are nesses. It now becomes my duty to outline the line of defense. He said to you, which is the law, that if these defendants went to shoot Eyster, and one of them held the revolver and fired the shot, and the other stood by and saw proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. They have charged these defendants with willful murder. The court will instruct you that you may, if you find the evidence justifies it, find that they may be guilty of murder, manslaughter or that they may go acquit as innocent. Now, gentlemen, we will show that these men made no threats against Mr. Eyster; that they were born and brought up in that neighborhood and knew both Mr. Eyster and his clerk Layton. We will show that McAfee has not been arrested since the week before the last election. We will show that Parker had no reason to make threats against Mr. Eyster, and will show it to have been a physical impossibility for either of the defendants to have been at the drug store on the night of the shooting. We will show you that two or three policemen have been malicious in their efforts to fasten the commission of this crime upon these defendants. We will show that two of the best detectives in Marion county were detailed on this case in the first place, and followed up the case to a certain point and were then withdrawn and these other officers put on the case. We will show that the shooting could not have been done with the gun found at Parker's house. We will show, further, gentlemen of the jury, that at the time Colvin swore be saw the defendants on the railroad, just before the shooting, McAfee was at the American Express Company's office, on South Meridian street, where he had been sent by his mother with a package for her son, who is in Michigan City. We will show you that these hove when arrested, told the offiyou that these boys, when arrested, told the offi-cers they were innocent and demanded to be taken before Mr. Eyster for identification, and their request was refused. We will show this, gentlemen, for the reason that no men who had ommitted so heinous an offense as this would have been likely to ask to be taken before the man who, alone of all others could, by his ante-mortem statement, consign them to State's prison or the scalloid."

Mr. Kealing, in conclusion, promised the impeachment of John Venable and several other witnesses for the State.

Patrolman Clinger was recalled by the State and shown the bullet taken from Eyster's body. He said it was from a rimfire cartridge, and when shown the revolves he said it was a rim-fire revolver. Mr. Kealing, to test the knowledge of the witness, handed him bullets extracted from cartridges and asked if they were rim or center-fire. After the witness answered these bullets were marked and put in evi-

WANTED THE JURY TO EXAMINE. The defense then asked, before going into evidence, that the jury be permitted to go to the scene of the shooting, the trip to be made after dark, in charge of a bailiff and suitable guide, and examine the premises and surroundings. Some of the jurors objected to the night trip on account of the distance they would have to go on returning nome. The court said they would not be compelled to make the trip after dark, but granted the request for a visit to the

The first evidence offered by the defense was records of proceedings against the defendants in the Police Court. The defense next offered to introduce in evidence the testimony before the coroner of Albert Layton, Mrs. Eyster, John Venable and W. H. Colvin. The offer was made for the purpoes of impeachment.

Collins Jasper, residing at No. 208 West Second street, testified that he saw John Parker at Carrie Spaulding's about 8:40 on the evening of the shooting; Bert Black was with him. There was in the house at the time, besides himself and Black, Parker, George French, Carrie Spaulding and snother woman. Witness said he didn't see Ed McAfee at the nouse. Frank Mitchell was next called. He said he was at Venable's saloon the night of the shooting: went there at 8 o'clock and stayed there till he heard the screaming. Witness said he was sitting by the store when he heard screaming, and he and Willie Wilson ran out and ran along the south side of the street and cut across towards the drug store. He saw no one coming from the drug store. Witness said Venable was behind the bar in the saleon when he heard screaming. After be left the drng store witness went back to the saloon and heard Venable inquire what was the matter. Witness said that Venable said he thought it was "some nigger lickin' his wife and he never went to the door."

Willie Wilson testified to about the same. He also testified that he went to the saloon the next morning, and learned that the officers were looking for Parker and Mo-Afee to arrest them for the shooting. Witness said he saw defendants at Carrie Spaulding's, and told them that the officers were looking for them. Witness said defendants remained at the house till they were arrested. He was present when they called, kept a bakery, with her husband in the next block to Eyster's drug store. On the night of the shooting a strange colored man came in and asked if they had pies, and then asked to have a nickel changed. Witness gave the man five pennies, and he went out, and went south. Officer Ward came in Saturday afternoon, and she described the man who had been in the bakery. About fifteen minutes after the man went out she heard screaming. Witness said she knew Parker, and the man in tne store that night looked like him, but

STORIES OF GABLER AND BANKS. Henry Gabler, residing at No. 178 West Ninth street, said he had attended a meeting of the tinners' union at Meridian and Pearl streets that night. After the meeting he started to walk home, and went up Mississippi street. Witness said: "Just before I got to the drug store I saw two fellows run south on Mississippi street and turn into the alley running west from Mississippi street and south of Third street; just after the men turned into alley I heard screaming; went up to the drug store. The officers got there about the same time I did, and I told them of seeing these men run into the alley. When I first heard them running I was about the alley south of Third street. At the time they turned into the alley I was right opposite the mouth of the alley on the opposite side of the street." In answer to questions as to whether he saw persons run away from the drug store he answered: "No; I was a half a square from the store." On cross-examination witness testified that the shot in the alley and the screaming came at about the same time. He went direct to the drug

"Were you ever arrested?" asked Mr. 'I didn't come up here to make a show of myself." Witness admitted, however, that he had been arrested for murder, but James Banks, the next witness called, was at Mount Zion Baptist Church, corner of Second street and the railroad, the night of the shooting. Church was dismissed about 9:45. Witness said he was the first person ont of the church and just as he stepped out he heard a shot to the north. "I heard no more, and started home on a run. Just as I got to my door I heard two men run by going west. I heard one of them say: 'Don't run so fast; I am out of breath.' went to the gate and them turn on Howard street. I heard another shot fired and heard them run across the First-street bridge. I live on Middle street; it runs east and west, between First and Second streets, and from Howard to Lafayette street. I went in the house after I heard the shooting." Witness was not cross-examined. He said he could not recognize the men running, and in answer to a question by Prosecutor Holtzman said it might have been the defendants. William Lawrence and John Wilson testified to having been in the saloon when they heard the screaming. Both testified that Venable was behind the bar when Mrs. Eyster screamed, and that he was there when they left the saloon. John Venable testified before the coroner that when the shot was fired he was standing outside the saloon door talking to a Mr. Wilson. John and William Wilson both said there was no other Wilson in the saloon that night and that neither of them were outside talking to Venable. The court then adjourned till this morning.

Charges Against Detective Thornton. It is reported that detective Thornton has been interesting himself for the defense and trying to gather evidence for the defendants. Thorndenies that he has been trying to defeat the action against them. He that he became satisfied after working upon the case for several hours that the defendants were not the guilty parties and if his testimony, which will be the facts as he sees them, helps the defendants, he don't care. He says that he has been connected with the police department seventeen years and is not ashamed of his record in that time.

FORT WAYNE STRIKERS WON. Arbitration Committee Got the Raise Demanded, and Street Cars Now Running.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORT WAYNE, Ind., June 2.- This morning the aspect of the street-oar strike looked serious, as during the night poles had been sawed in two, and wires had been out in several places. The police had been on duty two days and nights, and were completely worn out. Sheriff Clausmier commenced early this morning to subpœna fifty deputy sheriffs, selecting them from business men, bankers and capitalists, and soon had a posse of fifty, who were all aworn in. These selected the following committee of five: Charles McColloch, president of the Hamilton Bank, G. H. Wilson, H. C. Paul, C. S. Bash, D. N. Foster and S. C. Lombard, to confer with the opposing parties of the strike. It was finally agreed by the company to pay the men 15 cents per hour, commencing June 15. This was agreed to at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. In less than an hour all the cars were running with the old men and the new ones also, and the strike was declared off, much to the relief of the citi-

DRAKE NOT BADLY HURT. The Columbus Murderer Says He and Mrs. Ward Agreed to Die Together.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, Ind., June 2.—The pistol balls fired by Ralph Drake at his own head, after he had murdered Mrs. Ward, the woman who had deserted her home for him, did not penetrate his skull, as was at first supposed, but ranged around it. This caused him to remain unconscious for some little time, but he has rallied and is a badly disappointed man. He is in the county iail, having been sent back, without bail, after the hearing of the evidence on the preliminary trial to-day. The grand jury was called by Judge Hord to meet and look into the case and return an indictment against him. Drake 18 morose. He refuses to talk except to express a desire to die. The relatives of the murdered woman came to the city and took charge of the remains after an autopsy had been held. Her husband, John Ward, whom she had deserted and refused to live with for some time, came to the city early this morning and aided in preparing for her funeral. He wept over her dead body, and declared that he loved her still. When first placed in ail Drake, her slayer, talked freely, and claimed that he and the dead woman had agreed to die together, but that she protested at first against the rash act because she was afraid he would not carry out his part of the contract. The feeling here is strong against Drake, who has an unbalanced mind.

TROGDEN FINALLY ACQUITTED.

Four Trials for Murder, and Twice Convicted. He Secures a "Not Guilty" Verdict. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

Brazil, Ind., June 2 .- The Trogden murder trial, which has held the attention the Superior Court here for past few days, went to the jury yesterday noon, at o'clock, and the jury remained out until this evening at 8 o'clock, when a verdict of acquittal was brought in. This was Trogden's fourth trial. The first jury disagreed, the second gave him three years and the third five years. The last two new trials were obtained on technical errors solely. the case having gone to the Supreme Court before being ordered back the last time, Trogden killed a road supervisor in Vigo county, near the Illinois State line, several years ago.

TO ANNUL ITS CHARTER.

Proceedings Begun at Chicago Against the Whisky Trust-Sale of Bonds. CHICAGO, June 2. - The hearing of Attorney-general Maloney's quo warranto proceedings to annul the charter of the Whisky Trust began to-day before Judge Tuley. The trust attorney's contended that the action should have been commenced at Peoria instead of Chicago. After a long legal debate on points of law and the jurisdiction of the local court, Judge Tuley held that he had jurisdiction and granted leave to file information against the trust. The charges will be a technical enlargement of those which have already been To-morrow afternoon President Greenhut and tecretary Hennessy, of the Whisky Trust, will close the sale of the first $1,000 .-000 of the new bond issue. Mr. Greenhut said to-night: "We have received several proposals for the bonds and expect others from the East. The proposals now in are from local people. We may not get par, but as we must have the money we shall make the sale. Had the directors agreed with me a few months ago, before the scare, we should have sold all the bonds at par. It is impossible to get a loan from the banks, and we are compelled to ask for bids." Another Chicago Bank Fails.

CHICAGO, June 2 .- Cheverton, Martin & Co., private bankers, made a voluntary assignment to-day. Assets were scheduled at $100,000, and liabilities at $70,000. According to M. S. Martin, the junior member of the firm, the failure is due to the unsettled condition of the money market. "We have had a constant demand on the part of our depositors for the last month." said Mr. Martin, "and we were unable to withstand it. Our currency simply gave out and forced us to suspend."

Other Business Troubles.

Boston, June 2.-The Thorpe & Martin Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of stationery, etc., No. 14 Milk street, with a factory at No. 113 Purchase street, has assigned. Telegraph Wires Ordered Out of Morris Park -Results of Yesterday's Contests.

MORRIS PARK N. Y., June 2.—The Western Union Telegraph Company's wires were ordered out of the Morris Park grounds to-day by proprietor John A. Morris, and the fight between this association and Guttenberg is fairly on. Word was sent to Mr. Morris that books were to be made on the Westchester races at Gutter berg, and this was the reson for Mr. Morris's summary action. "I do not know how long this fight will continue," said Mr. Morris, "but until the Guttenberg people stop stealing our information, the wires will remain outside the grounds." The telegraph operators immediately made arrangements to send the news from the Van Nest railroad station. ELWOOD, Ind., June 2 .- The mammeth De | The attendance at Morris Park to-day

Four Months of Racing for Cyclers. New York, June 2 .- The National Cycling Association to-day adopted an official schedule for the season, which opens at New York on July 3 and 4, and closes at Boston on Oct. 26 and 28. The schedule shows thirty-nine races to be run under the rules of the association, covering a period of about four months. The rules require that the thirty-nine races shall not be run forless than $500 per day as a minimum. It means that the new association will offer a grand total of at least $19,000 for its riders to race for during the scheduled season. That this amount will be greatly increased is shown by the fact that New York has already given notice that it will offer not less than $1,000 per day for their meetings on July 3 and 4, which would bring the season's money up to more than $20,000. Be-sides these scheduled races as above, there will be sanctioned races at fairs and smaller cities, which are not members of the association, which will make the chance for successful racing men to win large additional purses.

IVES MADE ANOTHER BIG RUN. Caromed on the Balls Till His Score Was

5,000, and Broke Up His Wedge, LONDON, June 2.- In the international billiard match between Ives and Roberts. lves, the American champion, this evening resumed his play on the balle, which be got jammed at the mouth of a pocket last night. When he laid down his one last night he was in the midst of a run in which he had already scored 1.540 points. and had brought his total up to 4,001. This evening he continued caroming on the balls wedged at the mouth of the pocket until he had brought his total up to 5,000. then broke the balis up. In doing so, Ives first pocketed Roberts's ball, and then played his own nall in off helred, which ran in the balk. He is expected to open tomorrow with an intentional miss. During Ives's play many sareastic and unfavorable comments were made by spectators nearest the table. The majority of those present, however, applauded the American repeatedly. Throughout the match lyes's style has been widely different from Roberts's. The Englishman plays for the pockets as often as for caroms, while Ivee confines his game mostly to caroms.

NO MORE POOR SERVICE. Tuesday's Crowds Caused a Break Down Which Has Now Been Repaired.

The service on the electric street-car lines has been more or less unsatisfactory since Tuesday. During the heaviest of the work on Tuesday evening, the largest engine at the power house broke a valve, and it was necessary to send to Worcester, Mass., to replace the part. With the power reduced almost one-half it became impracticable to have the regular number of trailers running. At a late hour last night Superintendent Boyd reported that repairs had been completed and the service will to-day be fully restored. Says His Roommate Robbed Him. George Rousch, a lodger in a Geisendorff-street boarding house, complained to the police that he was robbed of $125 by Chris Russell, his commate, on Thursday night.
